THREE HIRED AT WALTON CONSTRUCTION

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (August 2007) – Dennis Thompson, chief strategy officer and part owner of Walton Construction Company, LLC., recently announced the following new hires in the company's corporate office:

- Nathan Fields was hired as database administrator. His responsibilities include: CMiC migration, database support, report writing, and other day-to-day IT support items. Prior to joining Walton, Fields worked as a database administrator for DEMDACO in Stillwell, Kan. where he supported programmers at DEMDACO. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Kansas.
- Chanel Rayfield was hired as IT Support Assistant. Her responsibilities include setting up computers and providing technical support for all Walton offices. Prior to joining Walton, Rayfield was a substitute teacher for the Kansas City, Missouri School District. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Computer Information Systems from DeVry University.
- Heather Hubert was hired as director of learning. Her responsibilities include managing the individual growth and development of Walton employees as well as addressing system-wide performance challenges through learning solutions. Hubert will design internal classroom training programs and provide structured experiential learning opportunities such as job shadowing. Prior to joining Walton, she worked as a learning consultant for the sales team at Cerner. Hubert earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Secondary Education and Political Science from Kansas State University. Currently, she is working towards her Master's degree in Instructional Design.
